“The IASA Aspiring Superintendent Academy is professional development as it should be, practical and meaningful. The resources developed during the academy will allow me to be successful from day one. But, it didn't end there, as the academy focused on the personal aspect of leadership, prompting me to look inside myself and to shape my leadership skills based on who I am.”

—Dr. Eric Witges, Assistant Superintendent, Harrisburg CUSD #3

“The IASA Aspiring Superintendent Academy is by far one of the best professional learning events that I have been a part of. The presentations from sitting superintendents and IASA representation allows for practical and applicable knowledge and experience concerning the superintendency.
