How Kids are Performing:

3 Critical Insights on Accelerating Learning This School Year

Monday, September 13, 9:00 AM - 10:00 AM Central

Presented by Dr. Gene Kerns, Vice President & Chief Academic Officer, Renaissance

As we begin the new school year, educators at all grade levels will need proven, easy-to-implement, evidence-based research strategies to accelerate student learning.

Join us to explore how you can meet your students at their level in the 2021–2022 academic year, along with new insights on:

- The full impact of the COVID-19 disruptions in elementary and middle school
- Performance by student subgroup—and what's hiding behind the averages
- Why we'll need to rethink our approach to remediation this year
- How culturally relevant teaching practices support acceleration
