

IASA Daily News Briefs
Thursday, March 27, 2014

State education funding would remain generally flat in budget

Quinn makes case to leave income tax increase in place

Peoria Journal Star: Look at state budget from both sides now

Rockford Register Star: Rauner should give his own budget address

Peoria officers caught in middle of debate over school police

School time-change proposal draws strong reaction in Iowa district

Aspiring teachers could get more shots at basic skills test

Middle school uses music video to promote bond issue