

IASA Daily News Briefs
Tuesday, April 01, 2014

Daily Herald: Funding schools with income tax useful debate that can't be renewed

Quad-City Times: Rise n' Shine -- Talk of new school start times bring familiar concerns

American students above average in problem-solving, but Asia still dominates

Bloomington Pantagraph: Lowering taxes is great, but we need details

Viewpoint: Better planning key to Illinois' fiscal future

Junior high media clubs produce news shows, empower students

District launches Twitter contest among its schools