

IASA Daily News Briefs
Tuesday, October 28, 2014

Obama, Duncan call for 'smarter' standardized testing

Missouri Board of Ed holds first hearing on replacement Common Core standards

Carbondale police to create relationships with schools

Point but don't shoot: Some districts allow seniors to pose with their guns in yearbook photos

Champaign superintendent: Voters have future of district in their hands