Preparing for the job of the 21st Century Superintendent

“So much more than a ‘program’—more of an opportunity designed to ignite your desire to lead school districts in Illinois in the company of a group of peers who share your aspirations and passion...life changing!”

What is the IASA Aspiring Superintendent Academy and who should participate?

Have you ever wondered what you didn't learn in graduate school but may need to know in order to be an effective leader? If you are thinking about becoming a school superintendent then #ASuperWeek in July 2019 is for you!

The learning classes will be organized to provide for active learning as well as daily reflection time. In addition, there will be many simulations during the week for hands-on learning opportunities. The Illinois Association of School Administrators (IASA) Aspiring Superintendent Academy (ASA) is a program for school leaders who are thinking about becoming a superintendent. The five day summer learning academy will hone participants' leadership knowledge and skills and give them a view of the modern superintendency. This summer learning academy, aligned with the ISLLC Standards, will be a fast-paced, authentic Learning Academy where attendees will participate in simulations and produce meaningful artifacts that reflect the current expectations of the job of the superintendent. Click here to learn more about IASA's Aspiring Superintendent Academy.

What can I expect each day?

Each day of the Aspiring Superintendent Academy will feature a different accomplished superintendent and other professionals from across the Midwest. They will bring expertise regarding different aspects of the modern superintendency. In addition to learning from them, you will also be able to add them to your own professional network for future support and collaboration.

Day 1	School District Leadership
Day 2	Communication Strategies
Day 3	School District Planning & Operations
Day 4	School Finance, Advocacy & Law
Day 5	Action Planning and Next Steps

Why should I participate in the IASA Aspiring Superintendent Academy?

- Professional learning network
- Immersive learning experience five days/nights
- Working/Networking Dinners
- Access to screening interviews with state/national search firms
- Illinois Administrators' Academy Credit
- Relationships that will last your career and your lifetime.

Participants will produce/experience a usable artifact during every module.

Examples may include but are not limited to: video creation, crisis planning, legal issues, principal evaluation, simulation of school board meeting, state of district address, welcome back speech, budget presentations, PTA meeting, resolution of an ethical dilemma, and much more.

Presented by:

Michael Lubelfeld, Ed.D.

Michael Lubelfeld Ed.D. has served as a public school superintendent in Illinois since 2010. In addition, he has worked as an adjunct professor, advisor, and supervisor at National Louis University in the Department of Educational Leadership. A public school educator and educational leader for more than 25 years, Lubelfeld has served as an assistant superintendent, a middle school associate principal, a principal, and a middle school teacher. He has experience teaching social studies, reading, and civics. Earning his doctorate in education in curriculum and instruction allowed Lubelfeld to test theories of learning in action. Mike is a graduate of the IASA School for Advanced Leadership II program and the AASA National Superintendent Certification program. In 2017 he was named the Lake County (IL) Superintendent of the Year. He is the co-moderator of the monthly Twitter chat #suptchat with Nick Polyak, and he and Polyak co-authored the book The Unlearning Leader: Leading for Tomorrow's Schools Today (Rowman-Littlefield Publishers). Their latest book, co-authored with PJ Caposey, was released in January 2018, Student Voice: From Invisible to Invaluable.

Nick Polyak, Ed.D.

Dr. Polyak is the proud superintendent of the award-winning Leyden Community High School District 212. He earned his undergraduate degree from Augustana College in Rock Island, IL, his Masters from Governors State University, and his Ed.D. from Loyola University Chicago.

Nick has been a classroom teacher and coach, a building and district level administrator, a School Board member, and a superintendent for the past ten years in both central Illinois and suburban Chicago. Nick is a graduate of the IASA School for Advanced Leadership II program and the AASA National Superintendent Certification program. He has been married to his wife Kate for the past 18 years and they have four children.

"This is summer camp for aspiring superintendents...an intense immersion into the work of school leaders that will transform your career."

Registration Information and How to Apply

The registration fee for the five day Learning Academy is $1,650. Tuition includes a daily continental breakfast and lunch, resource materials and lodging for the entire week, Sunday–Thursday (check-out Friday). The Learning Academy will run from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day. IASA will make lodging arrangements for participants at the Crowne Plaza Hotel, 3000 South Dirksen Parkway in Springfield.

The IASA Aspiring Superintendent Academy will be limited to 35 participants. Applicants must complete an online form by clicking here. Applicant agrees to pay $1,650 for the five day experience. (Note: Payment can be split over two payments but the applicant agrees to pay the full $1,650. Due to the nature of this program, no refunds will be given and all applicants must pay the program tuition regardless of successful completion.) Lodging will be secured by IASA once the participant list is finalized.

By completing the online application form, you are reserving a space in the IASA Aspiring Superintendent Academy. Completed applications must be submitted by Friday, March 15, 2019. Participation in the IASA Aspiring Superintendent Academy will be finalized in early April 2019 and all applicants will be notified via email.

In addition to the online application, please send a letter of support from your District Superintendent via email to Ashleigh Knudson at aknudson@iasaedu.org.
